U. S. ATTITUDE IS 'AGGRESSIVE'

Hold Interest For Own Benefit

ters, eternal vigilance is the price of safety and I can assure business men that they may count on the constant and vigorous support and co-operation of the legislation in dealing with this evil.

On the subject of the Washington Dr. Bohmman said: "I believe the Washington conference by grappling with the Pacific and far eastern questions before they become dangerous, will give the republic of China an opportunity of saving herself from the grave difficulties to which the Chinese empire was exposed in 1919. I do not hide from myself the conditions of success for that conference. There must be friendly regard for all nations, willingness to look at facts from the point of view of every nation, a pervasive spirit of fair play, an abundance of good will, a vivid realization of the destructive power of modern warfare and an invincible faith in justice, reason, common sense and mutual confidence as better instruments than force.

The reasons for the call of the conference may be read in the policy proclaimed by the United States in 1919 and pursued consistently from that time to this. China is the concern of all powers. . . . Their first duty is to maintain the independence and territorial integrity of China. . . . and if China needs help to pull through the present difficulties, the powers in common must come to her assistance."

If the funds paid in are exhausted before complete restoration is made, the additional amount will be taken from the general fund of the counties. Samara and Kazan Are Hit By Famine

SAMARA, Russia, Oct. 2.—(By The Associated Press.)—A month's journey from Constantinople to Moscow by way of the Caspian sea and the Volga region reveals an immense hunger circle, culminating in intensity at Samara and Kazan. It is difficult to say whether more people are slowly perishing from under-nourishment in Constantinople, Tiflis, Baku and Astrakhan, or in the Saratov region. In each region there is a constant scramble for bread, both the whole un-divided daily portions of over a hundred, whether rich or poor, to stock up a slender store of provisions against the approaching cold weather. Standard Offers $100 Reward for Robbers Capture

In view of the increased number of thefts of company funds, particularly at service stations, it has been decided by the Standard Oil company to offer a permanent reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties guilty of robbing a company station. If the robbery is of particularly great magnitude, or if a particularly great amount of money is lost, a larger reward will be offered. This offer is being made throughout the entire Pacific coast, and is intended to put a stop to a number of robberies that have taken place recently. Let No Corn Spoil an Hour

Any Corn Can Be Stopped Now, Any Moment, by a Touch. SCIENCE has solved the corn problem. One can now stop a corn ache instantly, and shortly remove the whole corn. The method is gentle, scientific, sure. A famous chemist invented it. A surgical dressing house of world-wide fame produces it. It is Blue-jay—the liquid or the plaster. A touch applies it. The pain stops at once. Soon the whole corn, however ancient, loosens and comes out. It makes harsh treatments unnecessary. It makes paring ridiculous. It makes every corn ache a folly. Your druggist has Blue-jay. Let it end your corn—tonight. Liquid or Plaster. Blue-jay stops pain—ends corns. a Bauer & Black product

HOW MANY PARKS?

There has been, we feel, an unfortunate tendency, not shared by the City Commission as far as we know, to regard the Roeding Park extension proposal and the Barton Estate park site offer, as contradictory and alternative.

They should be regarded as entirely independent proposals. The only way in which they could possibly conflict should be in the matter of the expenditure of money; the financial ability of the city to swing them. And we think that the city government should be able to manage either or both of them under the terms which the city may be able to secure.

It should be possible, if the city decides in favor of either or both of these properties, to secure through negotiation, terms that are fair to the city as well as to the owners. And it should be possible, under the terms of payment as proposed, for the city to be able to so arrange its finances as to care for both if it wants them.

There has been a general acceptance, in the past, of suggestions that the city should build up, in the course of time, three different parks, one to the northwest of the city, one to the south-west and one to the east. Three good parks are not too much for Fresno, especially at its present rate of growth. But we have always felt that one good park was better for the city than three poor ones, and that the primary effort of the city should be directed toward making this one good park a pride to the city. And there should be nothing allowed to cramp its growth. So, if it appears that the city could do but one thing at a time, and if an alternative presented with one side of it the extension or impairment of the one park already existing, then it would be the best policy, to extend the present park to its logical size. This has been the attitude on the Roeding park extension. It has been agreed that Roeding park should some time in the near future be enlarged to become complete in itself. And now appears to be the time to do this.

But we should be very sorry to see this fact taken as preventing the seizing of an opportunity on the east side of town, one that might never be had again.

It will be remembered how regrettable was the cutting up of the privately owned Recreation Park a short time ago. That park opportunity can never be regained.

We think that every effort should be made by the city to come to a reasonable agreement with the owners of any park opportunity on the east side of town who have an attractive proposal. And it should not be many years before still a third park is secured for the southwest side of town.

FARM COLLEGE POLICY

The appointment, as a result of an act of the legislature, by Governor Stephens of a commission to investigate the leading agricultural colleges of the United States, will mean much or little according to the attitude that is to be taken by the members of the commission on the nature of their report. And we are satisfied that the value of the commission's report is to be materially added to by having upon it a Fresno representative in the person of S. G. Mortland.

We trust that the legislature, in creating this commission, has intended that it shall take a broad civic view of the needs of agricultural education, and will respect a report made upon that basis. It will be very unfortunate if the legislature created this board in a spirit of passing the thing up, and if the next legislature should treat the report to be made in the same spirit of indifference. The reason why commissions of this sort have frequently failed with little respect for themselves is that the legislature created them with no feeling of respect for them, the citizens of the state at large followed in the same path of disrespect and the members of the commission imitated their fellow citizens and felt no respect for themselves.

In any case Governor Stephens has selected a commission to go into this matter with deep concern for the future welfare of the people of California. The commission consists of men expert in special farm sciences, of men broadly familiar with the difficulties of farm financing as well as management, with the marketing conditions of California and with the general relationship of farming to California industries.

We can expect that these men shall be able to give the legislature of California thoughtful and matured suggestions on problems that have as yet been unsolved.

Will it be better for the state of California to continue its plan of building up agricultural colleges side by side with institutions of different culture, or should it separate them in localities where the educational interest shall have an agricultural slant exclusively?

Shall there be but one great agricultural scientific instruction and research school, with branches to illustrate the particular needs of localities to different parts of the state, or shall there be a number of agricultural colleges of equal standing and facility, say in the north, the center and the south?

Is it better to emphasize the work of farm colleges as being training institutions for those who go into the high schools to teach farming, or should they go on the assumption that in the course of time college work shall be primarily for farmers as well as for farm teachers?

These and many other questions are subjects that seriously divide the legislative intent, when law makers get together at Sacramento. The advice that the legislators get from either executives in the State University or from farming authorities or from other citizens is so diverse, so little sanctioned by actual experience that it has been difficult to arrive at any satisfactory conclusion. It will be the business of this commission to get the best light on them, and we trust that the legislature, as a result, can proceed on a permanent policy, with the approval and co-operation of all the educational factors in the state.

We have said that this commission is not to go on any junking trip. Its business is to be treated seriously, and its members will be required to treat the subject with deep consideration. The state has placed a dependence upon them by creating the commission. And its proceedings will be watched carefully with a view to results.

THE OUTWARD APPEARANCE

There is a Biblical imprecation that has been, we think, never fully understood. And we are not going here to pretend to solve the difficulty in the reasoning of it. But we are going to have something to say about it.

This is the imprecation against calling a man a fool. The penalty for it is hell fire. And it is not so many years since the awfullest swear word, to the pious man, was the word "fool". Our delicacy about the use of this word unfortunately has passed. We may not call a man a fool. We have too much superficial politeness perhaps, rather than fear of hell fire.

But how frequently we say in our hearts "Thou Fool!"

And how do we know but that, in one way or another we may suffer hell fire for it?

The folly of a man usually appears on the surface. It stands out at once. We have no difficulty in arriving at a judgment about it. To the unaccustomed eye, the sharp points of lack of character appear with a hideous reality. The strange eye sweeps clean. It probes a man's weaknesses, his villainies, his pettinesses.

It is the strength that is slow to appear to the eye of judgment.

Few men there are who can be of real service in very many ways. The most of us have considerable difficulty in being of service at all. We take years to develop a value. And yet we are called upon, day after day to have a character in all things. We have to function where we are weak as well as where we are strong. We have to be men whether we are men or not; we have to think, whether we have thoughts or merely mental reverberations.

Is it any wonder that it is our folly that appears at once. Is it strange that the idiosyncrasies appear to be the promulgators of our traits?

And so, we are classed as fools. And we dub our neighbors fools.

Pliny declared, some two thousand years ago, in a temper, that there was nothing so proud or so paltry as man. And having said it, it sounded so smart to him, that he wrote it down. And that saying, with a few others, survived through the Middle Ages and has come down to us as one of the eternal paradoxes. There is nothing so proud and so paltry as man!

But Pliny should have written his thought down the other way. He should have said: "There is nothing so paltry and so proud as man." Man is paltry. He is a fool. But he shares the paltriness, the follies of nearly all his fellow men.

And each one of us, we may be thankful for the value of human nature, is also wise. Each of us has a character that can be a pride to us, and to our fellow men.

It takes time to find out this cause for pride. We have to know men. We have to understand them. This is why it is dangerous to jump at our first judgment, and call a man a fool. For folly is the first, the superficial aspect. And wisdom is the depth of character.

"Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh upon the heart."

DIVINE DISAPPROVAL GIVEN TO DIVORCE

One of the strong admonitions against divorce in the Bible is to be found in the text of the Old Testament, the book of Malachi. "The shorter Bible" as translated and arranged by Charles Foster Kent of Yale University, this passage is done into lyrical prose as follows:

Have we not all one father?
Has not one God created us?
Why deal we treacherously with each other,
Breaking the compact made by our fathers?

And this you also do:
You cover the altar of Jehovah with tears.
So he no longer looks on your offering favorably,
Nor receives it acceptably, from your hand.
Yet you say, "Why is this?"
It is because Jehovah has been a witness
Between you and the wife of your youth.
To whom you have been untrue,
Though she be your companion and wedded wife.

Therefore guard your impulses,
And let no one be untrue to the wife of his youth;
For I hate divorce.
Jehovah, the God of Israel, declares:
'And the man who violates his marriage vow.'
So guard your impulses and be not untrue.

When everlasting peace is established among nations,
The big dog will say to the little dog, "It's your home, you saw it first."

NEWSBOY HERO TO BE HONORED

Tablet For Lad Who Died in France

BROOKLINE, Mass., Oct. 2.—A memorial tablet, depicting the death of Edward Scott, a 15 year old newsboy who died beside his sho-sho in France after having killed and injured 31 Germans, will be dedicated here on October 25 with exercises at which William Jennings Bryan will make the principal address.

The memorial, which has been placed on the Town Hall, is the gift of the newsboys of Greater Boston, of whom "Scotty" was one. He volunteered for service overseas. The tablet, reproduced from a painting by John Rockwell based on official photographs, cost the newsboys $2,000.

President Harding and Vice-President Coolidge, expressing regret at their inability to be present for the dedication exercises, approved the memorial in letters made public today. The president, in a letter to Edward Scott, director of the Roosevelt Newsboys Association, which had charge of raising the funds, expressed approval also of the plan to have Mr. Bryan make the principal address in his stead, adding that with the former secretary of state as speaker "a most appealing address" was assured.

Goodbye Pays Tribute
Vice-president Coolidge paid a tribute to boys who sell papers, saying: "Newsboys go everywhere, see everything and know everybody. There is no experience in which they do not have a part, and no life which they do not live. They are Americans. To their spirit, to their enterprise, to their courage, to their devotion, it is altogether fitting that a memorial should be erected bearing the name of one of the number who has become immortal."

A boy's band of 300 pieces from New York will have a part in the program. "Scotty" dropped his newspapers one day to enlist, less than a month after he was graduated from grammar school. A few weeks later he was in France as a member of the 301st Infantry Regiment. At Eplois, July 23, 1918, a year later, the boy volunteered for extra-hazardous service.

"See that path 'Scotty' said his lieutenant.
"That's your target, not a Hun must cross it."
"Yes, sir," said Scotty, saluted and took up his sho-sho gun. Slugs he loaded he held the shot while he killed or crippled 31 Germans, then died from his wounds.

Protection Need of Labor Unions

SAN JOSE, Oct. 2.—Union labor members are being put to the acid test at this time, James H. Doyle, Oakland organizer for the California State Federation of Labor, declared in his report to the organization's annual convention here today.

"Unless we protect our interests very actively we will not have any interest to protect," he said. "The future success of our movement depends upon us individually and collectively."
Doyle reviewed his work in California during the past year and told of the efforts made by employers to adopt the American plan in industry.

Gong Calls Town To Bandit Chase

Giving the "call to arms" alarm and armed posse responding.

Hazelwood, Ohio, twenty miles north of Cincinnati, is being given a wide berth these days by highway robbers, thugs and law-breakers in general.
The reason is the unique "call to arms" alarm which has been established there in the form of an old steel tire taken from a locomotive drive wheel. It is mounted on a stout frame at the corner grocery owned by E. P. Keffer right beside the highway, and a big sledge hammer always stands under it. When the community is wanted to turn out in arms, one has only to strike the steel rim resounding blows with the hammer and for two miles around the farmers in general drop their work and come forth prepared for battle.

This summer, two thugs, beat up a farmer and robbed his home.

He recovered and telephoned the alarm to the corner grocery. The robbers took to the woods, where they were surrounded. One was shot to death and the other was helplessly wounded and captured. The farmers now call themselves the "Sixteen Mile Stand Hungers" taking their name from a small settlement near Hazelwood.

Highway Building for Aid of Unemployed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Possibility of reducing the number of the nation's unemployed through use of unskilled workmen in the construction of new highways and in the maintenance of roads already built, was discussed at a meeting here yesterday of the executive committee of the National Association of State Highway Officials. To aid in this effort, it was proposed to seek from the war department road building machinery, of which the department has a surplus.

A resolution was adopted petitioning President Harding and members of congress to support the Philips bill pending in the senate, which would distribute to the states for use in road building, 1,500 five-ton Caterpillar tractors out of the war department surplus of 4,000 such tractors.

Voluntarily Accept Reduction in Wages

SAN JOSE, Oct. 2.—Only voluntary action on the part of labor members has brought reduction of wages to Stockton union men, despite the fact that Stockton was advertised as the "Open Shop City." George A. Dean, Stockton, vice president of District No. 4 of the California State Federation of Labor, declared in a report to the organization's annual convention here today.

Advocating of stockton as the "Open Shop City" was done by opponents of organized labor Mr. Dean said, and resulted in reducing wages of practically all organized workers.

Bartenders' Unions Are Still Active

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—Bartenders' unions continue as active organizations despite prohibition. The state board of labor and industries in an industrial directory just issued notes that among the 2,079 labor unions in the state are nine whose membership is made up of bartenders. The unions are located in Boston, Haverhill, Holyoke, Lawrence, Lowell, New Bedford, Southbridge, Taunton and Westfield.

Los Angeles Has Much Prosperity

SAN JOSE, Oct. 2.—More homes are under construction in Los Angeles now than at any time during the past ten years, E. L. Bruck, Los Angeles, vice president of District No. 2 of the California State Federation of Labor, declared in his report to the organization's annual convention here today.

Los Angeles, Bruck said, has not felt the industrial depression as most of the Eastern cities have in the last six months. In fact he added, trade conditions, especially in the building trades, far exceed expectations of the most conservative men in and out of labor circles. Labor union wages, hours and conditions have been maintained in Los Angeles and vicinity, he said.

DEEP TILLAGE ON RUDY RANCH

Today is Date of Demonstration; New Holt Tractor Will Perform

How to increase crop production will be demonstrated and explained on the H. V. Rudy ranch in Ventura avenue at the end of Sunnyside car line today.

In the Fresno Better Farming demonstration which is expected to draw a large interested crowd desiring to learn how to reap greater profits from the land.

Subsiding, plowing and discing figure among the various tillage methods which will be demonstrated. The subsoiling is effective and pays big returns; that there is a difference in plowing and discing; that there are specific reasons for the design and construction of the new Holt tractor, are some of the points which will be discussed by the personnel of the show.

"We started on our demonstration tour of the state about a month ago," said Fred S. Moore, manager of the enterprise. "Since that time we have put on a number of highly successful demonstrations. The farming public is interested in just what we are doing and is taking advantage of the opportunity to gain additional information on effective farming methods."

"At Merced our demonstration was staged in the four thousand-acre orchard of the California Packing Corporation. That big operators as well as small farmers were interested in our show was clearly shown by an order issued by Mr. W. A. Sims head of farming operations for the company, instructing all regular employees on the ranch to attend the show. Greater efficiency must be injected into the farming business. Progressive farmers are aware of this fact."

"Naturally there is wide interest in our new orchard and vineyard Holt tractor. Its performance at the demonstrations is winning many additional friends for the Holt concern. There is always interest in the killing deer and turkey while everybody enjoys seeing the Holt tractor plow turning over the earth."

GIVE AID IN CAR SHORTAGE

Railroad Commission and I.C.C. Cooperate

With a record crop of California grapes bringing top prices both the Interstate Commerce Commission and the State Railroad Commission are co-operating with the carriers in an effort to meet a critical situation caused by a shortage of available refrigerator cars. In response to a telegraphic appeal for assistance Interstate Commerce Commissioner Clyde R. Atchison has wired the California Commission that the commission is using its utmost efforts for the prompt return of refrigerator cars to the coast. Atchison reports a west bound movement of 750 refrigerator cars daily according to advisory messages from the roads. The carriers attribute a large part of the present shortage to the delay of eastern consignees unloading. In the case of grapes the returns are so high, it is said, that consignees are not deterred in holding back cars by the demurrage charge.

Commissioner H. Stanley Benedict who is handling the grape situation for the California Commission, while expressing the view that most of the trouble is at the eastern end today urged cooperation between shippers and carriers in loading and moving cars as promptly as possible.

Grape shipments this year are reported by the roads as much heavier than last year. In the past 27 days 10,446 cars of grapes are reported shipped out of California as against 7,748 for the corresponding period last season.

The Sweetest Day of the Year!

National Candy Day

Saturday October 8th

"M-M-M," said the calendar man, "so many black days; so few red-letter days." Then his eyes lit gleefully. "Why not," he said, "Why not a universal joy day?" And he wrote a great bright "8" under October to tell the world that October 8th is National Candy Day, the sweetest of all the year.

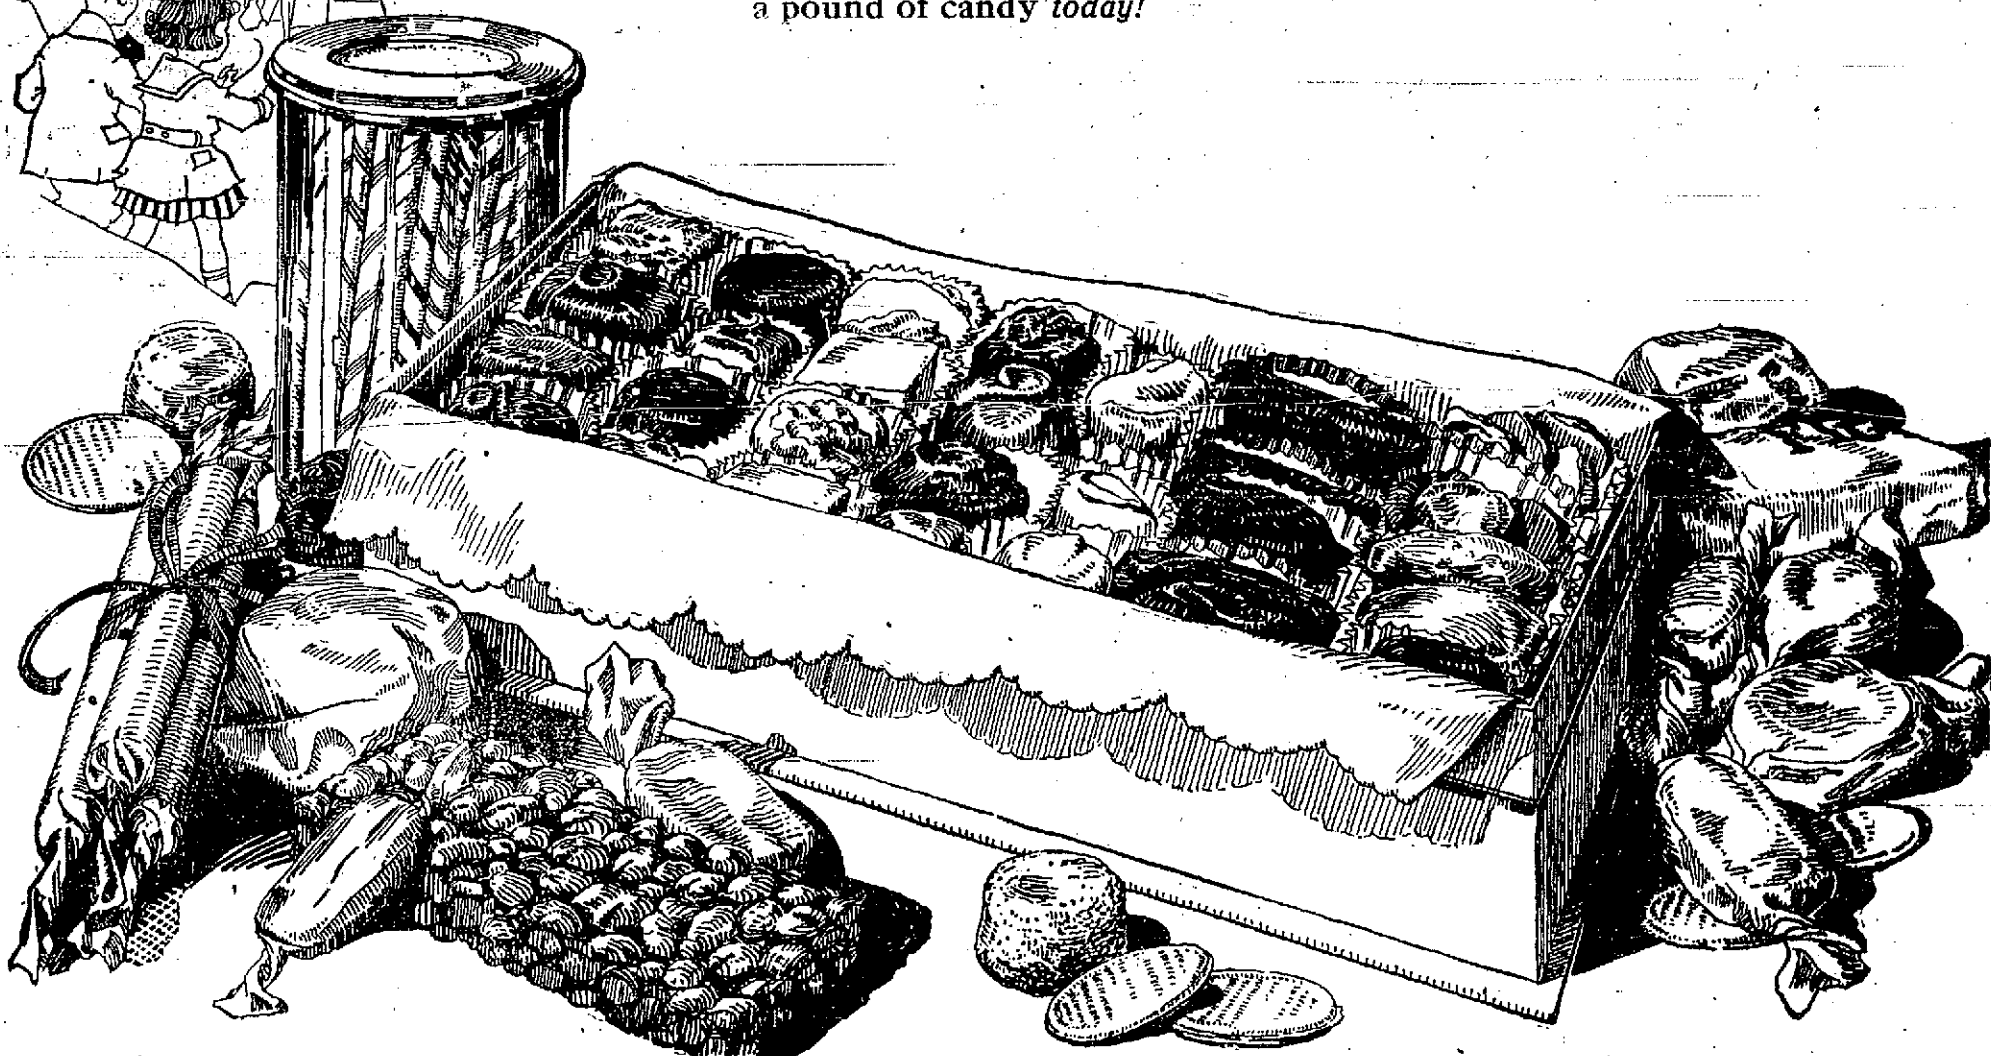

So it came to pass that all over the United States, in every city, town and hamlet, October 8th was proclaimed Candy Day.

Then came the war and a request for the conservation of sugar. Mournfully the calendar man struck off the shining day. This year, Candy Day is back on the calendar again! "The Sweetest Day of the Year" has come to stay. Everywhere people are celebrating this big event by remembering friends, sweethearts and home-folks with the universal gift—CANDY!

Every good dealer in this town is tip-toe to give you delicious Candy Day Confections at fair prices.

Make October 8th the sweetest day of the year for those you love best. They'll be disappointed if you forget. Take home a pound of candy today!

WILL IRRIGATE LARGE ACREAGE

Divert St. John River
Water to Canal

WOODLAKE, Oct. 7.—In order to make possible the permanent irrigation of 1000 acres of fertile river bottom land to the south of Woodlake, a new cement dam is being constructed across the St. John's river to divert water into the Long Cut canal. The old dam was of perishable material which has to be renewed each year, with the resultant uncertainty of the water being available at the critical time when the apples, pears, corn and alfalfa of that section most needed it.

With the completion of the new dam the district will get all the water to which it is entitled, which will insure abundant crops every season. This district's only need is water, and the new dam will insure a supply. With ample water the productivity of this fertile district is marvelous.

Among those who are backing the project are H. A. Hein, J. H. Hannan, Robert T. Curtis, C. Newman, Charles Newman, Mrs. Sherman Torgue, Freeman Brothers, Tade Sweeney, W. H. Hahn, L. C. Hallwanger and G. L. Thomas.

Newlyweds Crash Through Window of Bakersfield Store

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 7.—W. C. Stearns of Hanford narrowly escaped serious injury when his automobile, with his newly wed wife at the wheel, jumped a curb at Twenty-third and Eye streets and crashed through a large plate glass window in the A. B. Harrington store as he was attempting to crank the machine.

Unknown to Stearns and his wife, the car was in gear when he started to crank it. The engine turned over and started. The car climbed the curb with both front and rear wheels, rolled across the sidewalk and crashed into the side of the Harrington building.

Stearns was unable to leap away from the machine, and was carried on the bumper and fender through the big store window. Had the car struck the building a few inches to the left, his body would have been crushed between it and the concrete wall.

PLAN BI-CITY HOLIDAY FETE

Dinuba and Reedley To Observe Armistice Day

DINUBA, Oct. 7.—Dinuba will join with Reedley in the celebration of Armistice Day in the latter city on November 11, was decided today. An invitation was extended to the chamber of commerce of its meeting last week, but no decision was made until it could be learned what the American Legion wished to do.

The Legion on Monday evening decided to join with Reedley rather than with the county celebration at Tulare, as the Reedley representatives have agreed to join Dinuba similarly next year, and the promotion of good feeling between the two towns seems desirable. No official program has been arranged for the Reedley event.

Asbestos Shipment Marks Advent New Coalinga Industry

COALINGA, Oct. 7.—Two carloads of asbestos from the Liberty Asbestos Mining company's mine in the hills near this city were shipped during September. This was the first shipment of this material ever recorded in the records of the railroad company from this locality and marks the advent of another industry for the Coalinga district.

It has been known for many years that there are large deposits of asbestos in the hills surrounding the Coalinga field. The mine is being operated by San Francisco interests, but was formerly located and ascertained work done on the property by local men.

Seeks Divorce From Prisoner Husband

MODESTO, Oct. 7.—An interdictory decree of divorce on the grounds that her husband has been convicted of a felony for which charge he is serving time in the state prison, has been asked of the superior court by Helen S. Hargis from George F. Hargis.

According to the complaint the couple were married June 15, 1912 in Los Angeles, and are the parents of three children, Donald, 7; Lauretta, 5; and William, 3. On July 13, 1921, in the superior court of San Joaquin county the defendant was convicted of a felony.

At the expiration of the period fixed by law the plaintiff asks that she may have a final decree. Fifty dollars a month alimony for the support of her children is also asked.

FIX NO BLAME FOR FATALITY

Coroner's Jury Probes
Hanford Case

HANFORD, Oct. 7.—A coroner's jury, San Marcus business man, whose automobile collided with a light truck driven by James Kenoyer on a downtown corner here with the result that Kenoyer was killed yesterday was exonerated from all blame by the coroner's jury at noon today.

Much evidence was taken as to the speed of the cars and the location of the accident on the street intersection all tending to show that the accident was apparently unavoidable, neither driver seeing the danger until it was too late. The inquiry was conducted by Deputy Coroner M. A. Lewis with District Attorney J. W. Ferguson attending.

Kenoyer is the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Kenoyer of Visalia. He was born and raised here. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Couple Arrested at Highway Camp on Liquor Charge

POWELL, Oct. 7.—Constable John W. Ford and Deputy J. S. Crawford and C. E. Hyde yesterday arrested a couple giving their names as William Coy and Sabi Coy, on a charge of bootlegging. The two have been lodged in the county jail upon default of $1000 bail. The boys were brought before the justice of the peace yesterday and gave testimony upon which they were immediately held to answer to the superior court today.

According to information gained by the officers, the couple had been camped along the highway south of here for three months and had established a soft drink stand with a cider mill and apples in conspicuous display.

The local officers had the place under suspicion for several weeks. Yesterday, with the aid of a county detective, they secured evidence and with a search warrant raided the establishment. The woman made an effort to destroy the alcohol liquors. It is said, but was halted by the officers before much had been destroyed. A jug of wine was secured and bottles of whiskey were found buried in a ditch nearby, officers said.

$8000 BLAZE AT CORCORAN

Cardoso Building Was Old Landmark

CORCORAN, Oct. 7.—One of the old landmarks of this locality disappeared last night when the M. M. Cardoso building on Whipple avenue was destroyed by fire. The building was occupied by 2000000 worth of goods. A number of cars were burned. Being of Italian construction, the flames soon reached the light material on the roof, and the contents of the store were lost. The loss is estimated at about $8000.

The building was destroyed by a fire which started in the rear of the building. Several years ago it was destroyed by fire. It was later rebuilt and sold to M. M. Cardoso, who has since placed the frame structure with a modern concrete business floor.

TAFT, Oct. 7.—A branch of the S. A. Branch, formerly of the S. A. Branch, have arrived in this city and opened Saturday afternoon at the S. A. Branch, for the purpose of conducting business throughout the week. On Sunday, headquarters have been opened in South Taft.

Farmers' Union To Convene Today

MEETING, Oct. 7.—The quarterly convention of the Farmers' Union will meet for an all day session tomorrow at Patterson, in the high school auditorium. A basket lunch will be served at noon, with coffee furnished by Patterson local. Discussions on subjects of vital interest to all farmers will follow the business meeting.

One question to be given serious consideration is "What can the state market do for the benefit of the members of the Farmers' Union?" In his address at Taft on September 17, State Market Inspector H. Mahlow, said he wanted information from farmers themselves as to what his office could do toward the problem of better markets for farm products.

A specific case was the inauguration of Melon day and an increased demand for melons. The question is to be considered from all points at the convention and an answer will be formulated to send the market director.

Another subject for general discussion will be the threatened invasion of the dairy industry by coconut oil. This question is of interest to every farmer in Stanislaus county where the dairy industry is the one main dependence of practically every farmer.

MAN, MISTAKEN FOR DEER, SHOT BY OLD FRIEND

John Swartz of Kern
County Fields Dies
Instantly

Friend Is Prostrated
With Grief After Tragedy

Special to The Republican.
DAKERSFIELD, Oct. 7.—John Swartz, 35, an oil worker, employed by the Arizona Oil Company in the Kern River fields, was shot and instantly killed yesterday when he was mistaken for a deer by his long friend and hunting companion, J. B. "Red" Hall, on Lomax Creek, near Glenville. It became known here today.

The two men were pursuing a deer which they had wounded and had separated in order to close upon their game more quickly and surely. It was found that Swartz was shot through the back at a distance of 500 yards. He was found when found by Hall, who with several other hunters had heard the bullet victim's "last scream," and ran through the underbrush to the spot where the tragedy took place.

When the hunters reached the spot shortly after sundown, they found him sitting on the ground, rubbing his forehead and muttering, "My God I believe I've shot Jack." Hall was looking with grief when he learned the result of the fatal mistake. Incoherently he told the coroner, "I've killed my best friend."

Coroner L. F. Helm and his deputy, Joseph Murphy, conducted a partial inquest on the scene, returning a verdict of accidental death from a gunshot wound. The inquest was completed in the coroner's office at the court house this morning. Hall was the only witness. He was then taken to the hospital, where he was treated by several doctors. He was then taken to his home, where he was treated by his family. He was then taken to the hospital, where he was treated by several doctors. He was then taken to his home, where he was treated by his family.

The body was removed to the main road, four miles away, on the back of a pack horse, by Deputy Coroner Peter J. O'Meara and Deputy Sheriff George Fugitt, who arrived from this city at noon and had gone directly to the scene. It took several hours to complete the journey.

Swartz was married and survived by a family. He was a member of the Elk lodge. Both the dead man and Hall were on their way to go hunting several times each year and they were both experienced hunters.

Porterville Hunter Kills Mountain Lion
PORTERVILLE, Oct. 7.—N. H. Longest, local hunter, who has spent several unsuccessful weeks early in the season in quest of deer, has been rewarded on a second hunting trip, his kill being a huge mountain lion. In company with J. M. Frame and F. W. Vail, Longest left yesterday morning for the Guthrie cattle camp in the high Sierras. Shortly after the arrival of the party at the mountain camp, which is near Hot Springs, the Porterville sportsman killed the lion.

COALINGA, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Blanche Fausz, 52, native of New York, one of Coalinga's oldest pioneers, died last night at 9:30 at her home here, a victim of heart trouble, after being confined to her bed for two days. Mrs. Fausz had been a resident of Coalinga for over eighteen years and during most of the intervening time she conducted boarding houses both in the city and field. For five years she was proprietress of the Coalinga Boarding House, which she disposed of July 1, on account of ill health.

She was a liberal supporter of all local charities and a large contributor to the various charitable war funds during the late war. As far as is known she had no living relatives.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Lyle Undertaking Parlor, and the remains will be taken to Fresno on the evening train. They will be reinterred in that city Monday.

GET REBATE ON TAX PAYMENTS

Freeholders in Tulare
Paid Too Much

VISALIA, Oct. 6.—Taxpayers of Tulare county are about to receive rebates in the amount of $23,000, in round figures, representing the surplus paid into the county treasury from personal property collections already made by the county assessor who received his collections on the tax year of last year. Checks are now being drawn for nearly 2000 people who have paid their personal property taxes and will be ready for distribution within two or three weeks.

As is customary the assessor collected personal property taxes on the basis of the tax rate of the year before when the present year rate was not yet by the board of supervisors. It so happened that this year the supervisors made the tax rate considerably less than last which accounts for the rebate.

Last year the inside tax rate was $2.35 as against $2.50 this year and the outside rate was $2.50 against $2.35 this year.

TO ESTABLISH CEMENT PLANT

Capitalists Plan Work at Porterville

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 7.—Strong eastern and western interests have combined to build a cement plant in or near Porterville, according to word just received in this city. For several years men interested in this proposition have known of the deposits in the Porterville district and have tested the shales.

Negotiations for the acquisition of the necessary properties around this city, and other details, were arranged by Charles Sumner Woody of San Francisco. Woody has visited Porterville at different periods and is well known to business men here. He was the first man to come here and exploit magnesite on a commercial basis. He also introduced the first rock for the purpose of burning magnesite.

The people who are interested in the erection of a local cement plant are said to be manufacturers of Porterville and a complete force of engineers and skilled mechanics is now being held in readiness to come and start work here on short notice.

Stancill Assault Case Is on Trial in Tulare Court

VISALIA, Oct. 6.—H. G. Stancill of Tulare, went on trial this morning before Superior Judge J. A. Allen and a jury in department two, charged with assault with intent to commit murder on Antonio Cabral, a well known cattle buyer of Tulare.

The alleged offense occurred July 4 in the kitchen pool hall on Front street in Tulare. The jury was secured before noon and fourteen state witnesses, as well as four defense witnesses, were examined. The prosecution's complete case. All the witnesses saw some phase of the quarrel and all agreed that Cabral and Stancill had shaken hands, "made up" as they put it, and that Stancill had apologized to Mrs. Cabral. All also agreed that Cabral had gone back to the pool hall bar to return the glasses and was standing with his back to the defendant who followed him by drawing a pocketknife from his right pocket, and that Stancill struck Cabral first in the back of the neck.

The defendant opened his case by placing two witnesses on the stand who said they heard Cabral make a statement to the effect that he would "get" Stancill.

TWO DISTRICTS TO BUILD DAM

Madera-Medano Plan Is Outlined

MADERA, Oct. 7.—The board of directors of the Madera Irrigation district yesterday held a conference with A. L. Cowell, counsel for the Madera Irrigation district, at which the problem of the joint use of the Chowchilla River by the Madera and Medano districts was discussed.

Details are being worked out by Attorney Cowell and Secretary Manager Walter C. Mallow of the Madera district; the plan to be presented by Mr. Cowell to the Medano directors.

GIANTS COME BACK WITH SMASHING VICTORY

YANKEES SWAMPED UNDER SHOWER OF 20 HITS AND GIANTS SCORE 13 RUNS

Crowds Delighted as Nationals Turn Tables After Remaining Scoreless For Two Days

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press)—The Giants awoke from their two days of lethargy today and sprinkled the greensward at the Polo grounds with such a shower of hits that the Yankees were swamped under a score of 13 to 2 in the third game of the world series.

The National leaguers had gone runless for twenty innings up to third session of this afternoon's struggle. Then the out-break of hitting started.

Stealing the Yankees' thunder, as the latter had stolen theirs in the previous games of the series in speed and daring on the bases, John McGraw's men, after spotting their American league opponents to a four run lead, promptly cancelled this advantage, driving Bob Shawkey, who had started for Miller Huggins' team, off the mound in the third inning. Then, after the score had run along in a tie for three more innings, they broke out with an orgy of hitting against second string Yankee pitchers in the traditional "lucky seventh" inning, putting over eight runs in this chapter and piling up a total of thirteen runs and twenty hits in their eighth innings at the bat.

Crowd Delighted. Despite its coldness, the game was of the sort that tickles the fancy of the average baseball crowd, and today's throng, despite the pouring rain, was a goodly one. The game was full of thrills, brilliant catches, during base running, and on the Giant side, long distance hitting.

The crowd, with perfect baseball weather to bring it out, was a record breaker for this series. More than 38,500 fans jammed the stands and bleachers. They broke the series' record for attendance at the Polo grounds. The turn of the Yankees adherents came first, but the hubbub they kicked up was nothing to the loss by the Giants' fans when their opportunity arrived.

With the McGraws riding roughshod over their opponents, the National League paraded in some notable defensive feats. One of these was a jumping catch in the second inning by Aaron Ward, the Yankee pitcher, which resulted in a double play.

It was George Burns, the Giant centerfielder, however, who turned in the most remarkable feat of the game. At first, the whole series of the game seemed to be composed of nothing but waves of yehing humanity. The Yankee supporters were dumb after the third inning and the close of the conflict became a giant carnival.

Yankee infield strong. The Yankee infielders stood up well under the Yankee onslaught. Incidentally, turned in some notable defensive feats. One of these was a jumping catch in the second inning by Aaron Ward, the Yankee pitcher, which resulted in a double play.

RUTH MAY BE OUT TOMORROW WITH INJURIES

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Babe Ruth was suffering tonight from a severe abrasion on his left arm, which his physicians said would undoubtedly keep him out of the game tomorrow and may prevent him from playing for several days.

During Thursday's game Ruth stole second and then third, sliding into the latter bag and bruising his elbow. The injury became infected while he was playing. It caused him so much pain in today's game that he withdrew after getting a base on balls in the eighth inning, leaving Fawcett to run for him.

MADERA DEFEATS TECH ELEVEN BY 39 TO 0 SCORE

MADERA, Oct. 1.—Overlapped in weight and experience the team of the Fresno Technical high school met defeat yesterday at the hands of the Madera high school eleven, the final score being 39 to 0. Three times within the shadow of the tech team's goal line, Madera quarterback, was able to complete a forward pass to the line over the line for a touchdown.

SMITH FINED $200 BY LANDIS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Earl Smith, catcher for the Giants in Thursday's game, was fined $200 today by Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, for "irregularities" behind the plate.

The official figures showed an attendance of 38,500, with gross receipts of $119,000, the latter again a new record.

STORY OF THE GIANTS' COMEBACK 8 RUNS, 8 HITS IN THE SEVENTH INNING YANK PITCHERS KNOCKED OFF MOUND

Left to right—Barnes, Giant pitcher who came across the plate today for the first time since the Nationals made in the series. The next three are a league of sluggers who helped in the Giants' sensational seventh inning rally. Burns got a three bagger in the fourth; Young knocked a double in the seventh and later in the same inning lined out's three bagger; Irish Meusel helped out the day with a three bagger in the seventh frame.

CIVIC PROGRAM IS OUTLINED

Chamber Plans Work
for Winter Months

of taxation, of reappropriation, of the water power filings made by Los Angeles and other communities upon valley domain, and general matters of state legislation.

Irrigation and the Pine Flat project are to be discussed in full at meetings that will be called from time to time during the winter months. The issue in reference to Pine Flat is expected to be brought to a head before the coming spring. Committees from the chamber which have been working on the details of the project will be revived and the machinery to supply the desired irrigation will be set in motion, according to Patterson.

The much talked of classified directory which has been in the process of being compiled for some time has been completed and is now ready for distribution. It contains the names and classifications of all members of the Chamber of Commerce of Fresno County.

Better hotel accommodations and a comprehensive review of the housing conditions of Fresno will be the work of a committee which Manager Patterson is to appoint. Fresno citizens are to be asked to band themselves together and form a corporation to give Fresno a new hotel, the chamber men state.

To Combat Power "Grab"

An attempt to put at least one initiative measure on the coming ballot to forever snap outside communities and corporations from violating the valley of her water power possessions, will be made. The initiative will direct affect the Los Angeles filings made several months ago and will not be similar to the so-called "water over net initiative" which is being circulated at the present time.

The Commercial Secretaries' Association of the San Joaquin Valley is to hold a meeting on October 23, and at this time the fall and winter programs of valley advertising are to be mapped out by the valley officials. A huge advertising campaign to extend throughout the valley will probably be launched by the organization within the next month or two.

Preliminary details for Raisin Day will be worked out during the coming three months, though nothing definite will be done before next January. It is probable that several of the famous race drivers will be signed up for the coming Raisin Day, Chasco.

The steamer Phoenix recently sailed for Petrograd from Hamburg with one of the first loads of food to be distributed in the famine area of destitute Russia by the American relief committee. Flour, lard substitute, dried vegetables and other foodstuffs made up the load. Hundreds of tons of food are now on their way to the famine district.

Girl's Body Found Hacked With Knife

MADISON, N. J., Oct. 5.—Pierced by twenty-five knife wounds, apparently the work of a maniac, the body of Janet Lawrence, 12-year-old school girl, was found early today concealed behind a log in Kluxen woods, near here. Her throat had been slashed and her heart stabbed. The police asserted she had been attacked.

The child was reported missing yesterday afternoon when she failed to return from the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Joseph Sandt, where she had been caring for the Sandt children.

A pocket knife in twine, said by the police to be used only in greenhouses to bind rose bushes, is one of the clues to the murder. The child's hands were tied behind her with this twine.

NEWEST HOLT WILL PERFORM

Orchard and Vineyard
Caterpillar Tractor
Meets Popular
Demand

The new Holt Caterpillar tractor brought out after three years' work by the experimental division of the Holt Manufacturing Company promises to prove the great attraction at the Better Farming demonstration which will be staged on the Ventura Avenue Rudy ranch today. Just what the little rig will do under varying conditions will be thoroughly demonstrated by performing virtually every tillage operation from plowing to seeding.

This is the tractor they have been waiting for, the Holt Caterpillar, local dealer for the "Holt" concern. "A multitude of farmers in this section have been waiting to purchase the Holt orchard and vineyard rig. We have been promising it to them for some time. Now we have all we promised and more too. It is unquestionably two years ahead of any tractor built."

"We have been fortunate in securing one of these little Hols for display purposes. We will keep it on exhibit in our place of business after today's demonstration. Surely this rig meets the popular demand. It is correctly designed for orchard and vineyard work; in the right weight and built of the best materials obtainable. Purchasers will find it a most satisfactory investment."

The Birth of the Town of Fresno

In 1872, the railroad which had extended its line through this valley, surveyed and staked out a new town site—"Fresno Station."

To establish new towns the railroad customarily sold off a number of choice lots at public auction. But this "desolate and forlorn" spot tempted no bidders, so the company permitted newcomers to settle on the lots with the understanding that they should pay if they decided to remain.

Thus was born the metropolis of the San Joaquin Valley.
